Dear Friends

Autumn is here and Christmas has almost arrived, so quickly, again.

There is much going on throughout December; with festive lunches, Christmas parties, and our relaxing two and three day Christmas packages.

I hope you can join us in celebration this festive season and I would be delighted to enjoy a glass of Mulled Wine with you.

Regards

Anton Phillips, General Manager

Christmas at Langley

We pride ourselves at Langley Castle in offering the most relaxed Christmas experience available. From the moment guests drive through the gates towards the Castle we don't expect them to need to 'lift a finger', our staff will be on hand to pour the perfect cocktail before dinner and serve you some of the finest festive food the region has to offer.

We are offering both two and three day packages with prices starting from £450.00 per person; The "Langley Christmas Experience" will include accommodation, full Northumbrian breakfast and dinner for two or three days, commencing on the 24th December. Also included will be cocktail parties, Christmas day luncheon and Langley's inimitable style of family entertainment and fun.
